(c) Will the Government be pleased to call for gradation lists from the Head of the Department and remedy the injustice now done?

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.—

A.—35. (a), (b) and (c) No such cases have come to the notice of Government. It is understood that the Inspector-General of Education has, with a view to satisfy himself as regards promotions given by officers subordinate to him, called for statements of such promotions together with the gradation lists. If any specific cases of injustice are brought to his notice, he will be prepared to investigate them.

BY MR. B. RANGARAJIAH.—(Minority Interests, Mudgere Taluk.)

Q.—36. Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table the following information:—

(a) The number and amount of scholarships granted each year since the establishment of the Medical School and the communities to which they were granted?

(b) How many scholarships granted to women were made available each year to others on their having fallen vacant and to what communities they were given?

SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, LOCAL AND LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENTS.—

A.—36. A statement giving the information is placed on the table. (Vide Appendix XII.)

BY. MR. MEER MAHOMED SAB.—(Tarikere Taluk.)

Q.—37. (a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether any provision has been made in the Budget for providing poor people with houses in various towns, cities and villages? If so, what is the provision and how is it to be used?

(b) If the answer is in the negative, will the Government be pleased to consider the desirability of immediately providing such a grant specially in view of the present floods?

SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, REVENUE DEPARTMENT.—

A.—37. (a) No.

(b) If house building co-operative societies apply for assistance the request will be considered.
